

What makes an informed citizen in today's diverse world?

Intent

At Castlechurch we will teach life long skills, understanding and knowledge to prepare and equip pupils to flourish in this complex World. We aim to influence and develop children's behaviours and forge their own personal sense of values, identity and world views .

Explore

To gain an increasing insightful knowledge of religions and beliefs both in Britain and world

Engage

To promote an appreciation of the human and religious questions that are raised by life and its experiences.

Reflect

To reflect on social, spiritual and emotional skills that develop a sense of self-awareness, moral judgement and responsible choices. To nurture respect and equality.
